

RICHARD D. WILLSTATTER

Richard D. Willstatter, a 1980 graduate of Duke Law School, has been a criminal defense lawyer for his entire career. Mr. Willstatter is a partner at the law firm Green & Willstatter in White Plains, New York. He represents criminal defendants in the New York and federal courts and on appeal to the United States Courts of Appeals and in the State Appellate Divisions. Mr. Willstatter began his career as a staff attorney with the New York City Legal Aid Society's Criminal Defense Division in the Bronx. Mr. Willstatter joined Theodore S. Green, Esq. in starting his law firm in 1989 in Westchester County. Mr. Willstatter is current the President of the NYSACDL and has been a Member of its Board of Directors since 2004. Mr. Willstatter is a Vice Chair of the Amicus Curiae Committee of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. He served as NYSACDL's Amicus Curiae Committee Chair from 2005 through 2011.